POLITICAL PREDICTIONS.

The following piece of political information comes from the Free Lance:

It is rumored that the Anti-Chinese League will place a county ticket in the field this fall. Some of the names suggested for prominent places are Judge C. N. Harris for District Attorney, S. T. Swift for Sheriff, Wm. Corbett for Treasurer, and Dr. L. A. Herrick for Assemblyman. It is alleged that as in former years in Ormsby County the Democrats and dissatisfied Republicans will coalesce to beat the Republican ticket this year under the leadership of a Bourbon Democrat.

An Anecdote of Currie.

Ex-Mayor Currie, of Virginia City, who blew his brains out recently, was an auctioneer. Occasionally he received a carload of plants and flowers from California, and held an out-door sale on C street. It so frequently happened that when Currie held a flower auction a snowstorm came on that the two events got to be regarded as inseparable.

"I want you to postpone your sale," said a leading gambler, walking into his place.

"What for?"

"Because there are some lady friends up from Frisco, and I'm going to take them out for a drive over the Geiger grade. You can't sell no flowers to-morrow."

"But I must. The auction is advertised for to-morrow."

"She can't come off, all the same. I'll pay for the advertisement and make you good on spoiled truck. Is it a go?"

"No, sir; and I don't see what business it is of yours."

"All right, go ahead. But if the sale goes on I'll take a shot at you the minute you mount your box and ask for a bid."

"Are you crazy, Bill?"

"Crazy nothing. These is high-toned ladies, I tell you, and I want to do things up in shape for them. Dye's pose I'm going to let you spile the picnic by ringing in a snow storm on me? Postpone the auction, or heel yourself."

Mr. Currie postponed.—Post.

"Post" Predictions.

The San Francisco Post, in an article on the mining share market, says: "There are strong hopes among well informed parties that the streaks of pay ore recently found on the 600 level of Savage will ripen into something that will revive the whole market. Now that prices are very low, it would not take much of a showing of ore to cause a sharp advance. Were the Savage strike on the lower levels, instead of being so near the surface, it would undoubtedly be considered of more importance. Anything that will alleviate the situation, however, will be accepted with joy by thousands of long-suffering holders of Comstock shares. Unless something of this character soon happens, it will be impossible to collect more than a medium of the assessments now pending, for the patience and endurance of stockholders in most of the mines have about given out."

Democratic Loss of Opportunity.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—The Press says editorially: The Democratic party leaders have again lost the opportunity and shown their inability to reform the tariff. It must be done by the Republicans when it is done. The Republicans will go before the people this Fall with the Morrison bill pending. The issue with the people will be, do you want this sort of a Tariff bill which destroys certain agricultural interests and revises no defects of the law, or do you want the irregularities of the tariff carefully corrected with fairness to all interests? After having repeatedly failed, are the people likely to trust the Democratic party again?

—The Free Lance nominates Sam Jones, brother of John P., for Governor. If Sam was nominated he'd show the boys such a campaign as they never saw before in this State.

—There was quite a heavy frost a few nights ago. It knocked all the Chinamen's potatoes and let the white man's alone. The Lord is on our side.
